Your child is quick to observe disturbances in your mental attitude or physical condition. And when he asks: "What's the matter Daddy?" stamped upon you reflects intensely upon him because of his profound solicitude. He at once drops his playthings and rushes to your side, but his happy smile has disappeared and his buoyant spirits are gone—replaced by a countenance of worry and a bearing of hopelessness.

You owe it to the happiness and welfare of your family to keep trim in body and keen in intellect. You are the sun and the inspiration of their lives. Dark, threatening clouds hover over their heads the instant you show signs of being "out of sorts" or "under the weather." Don't imperil their future by neglecting your health.

KEEP INTERESTS MANIFESTED IN THRIFT DAY

January 17 Is Date Set Aside To Inculcate Ideals That Go For Thrift and Right Business Methods.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Kees interest on the part of the public in the projected plans for a national thrift week, beginning Jan. 17, 1932, has been evidenced in many ways already, the savings division of the treasury department announced today. The purpose of the week will be the endeavor to start the country off in the New Year with a sound financial program for every individual and household. Two ends are sought: First, that the condition of the individual be improved, and, second, that the financial and industrial strength of the nation be increased by the great sum of capital which will accrue through the practice of steady saving and safe investment on the part of citizens.

The importance to the country of the practice of thrift and saving by the individual is not readily appreciable, said William Mather Lewis, director of the savings division, "until its results in the aggregate are summed up. While the country was buying $20,000,000,000 worth of Liberty bonds, it also put away more than $1,000,000,000 in war savings stamps, and savings bank deposits in this country also have increased some $8,000,000,000 during the years the world has been at war.

The absorption of the Liberty loans was due somewhat to extension of our national credit, but purchases of savings stamps and increases in bank deposits were almost wholly due to the wise preference of the individual for increasing his own and the country's capital account instead of using his funds for unnecessary spending.

It is to bring to the attention of the country that it can, without sacrificing its pleasures or curtailing its comforts, add several billion dollars more to its capital account next year that plans for a national thrift week early in the year have been promulgated. "Ready additions to the nation's capital are necessary if we are to take advantage of the trade and industrial opportunities that will keep us at our present full tide of prosperity. We must refrain from unnecessary and extravagant spending if we are to bring prices down. Having saved money, it is essential that the individual invest safely. To this end we urge continued investment in government securities, on which steady and good interest returns are assured, with full return of principal.

Savings stamps and treasury savings certificates will be available again next year at banks and postoffices, and Liberty bonds may be purchased at or through any banking institution.

The program for national thrift week, as at present tentatively planned, is as follows:
National Thrift Day, Saturday, Jan. 17, 1932.—To enlist the nation in a campaign to "save first and spend afterward."
In other words, to stick resolutely to the program of making the present secure the future by the regular saving and investment of some part of every pay envelope to finance future opportunities or needs; to invest savings safely, preferably in loss-proof government securities; to curb the profiteer by demanding a dollar's worth of goods for every dollar spent.
Thrift Sunday, Sunday, Jan. 18.—Sermons in all American pulpits on the relation of economic life to religious well-being, and the need of sharing with others.
National Life Insurance Day, Monday, Jan. 19.—To emphasize the importance of protecting one's family with life insurance.
Own Your Own Home Day, Wednesday, Jan. 20.—To show why desirable and how possible to own a home.
Make a Will Day, Wednesday, Jan. 21.—To urge men to make wills, and in so doing impress upon them the necessity of making provision for the future.
Thrift in Industry Day, Thursday, Jan. 22.—To emphasize the need for factory thrift, and the economic value of co-operation between capital and labor.
Family Budget Day, Friday, Jan. 23.—To show the importance of using the budget plan in family finances.
Pay Your Bills Day, Saturday, Jan. 24.—To emphasize the moral obligation to pay debts.

STRIKING PRINTERS ARE RETURNING TO JOBS

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Striking printers were still returning from their "vacations" this morning, the rush for jobs being greater than ever when it was learned that many supposed vacationists did not exist owing to the large amount of work that has been sent out of the city.

This fact was expected to have its effect also on the vote to be taken today for the pressmen and feeders, still out on re-affiliating with their international union and arbitrating their differences with the printers' league.

Several hundred "vacationists" met yesterday and appointed a committee to draw up a history of the two month strike and to "place the blame where it belongs."

President Wilson is on the king's left and just behind him is Pershing, the most recent addition to the group, and one of the best examples of the Tussaud art. The president is not quite himself, nor is the king, Lloyd George, Foch and Haig. But the commander-in-chief of the A. K. F., Clemenceau and his entourage are perfect. "I almost caught Black Jack saying, 'I'm in a fine crowd, and my uniform fits perfectly and all that, but it doesn't get like some standing here with one leg in front of the other for weeks at a time. The program identifying reports printed in the king and is Sir John when he is in the Great Exhibition. Benjamin Franklin sat for his portrait model. ### POPE BELIEVES IN BOY SCOUT EXTENSION MOVE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Commending the new movement to extend Boy Scout units throughout all the Catholic parishes in the United States, a message from Pope Benedict was received at the headquarters of the national Catholic war council in this city today. Addressed to Michael J. Slattery, executive secretary and chairman of the committee on men's activities of the organization, this communication from the Vatican reads as follows:

"The holy father has learned with much interest and pleasure that steps have been taken to promote the formation of distinctively Catholic units among the Boy Scouts of the United States; that the movement has the approval and support of his eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, and also of so many archbishops and bishops; and that its chief aim is to build up the Boy Scouts spiritually and physically.

"Such a movement is deserving of the highest commendation. His holiness therefore wishes it every success and gladly bestows the apostolic blessing on all those who further the Catholic extension of the Scout movement under the auspices of the ecclesiastical authorities.

More than 500 inquires as to organizing Boy Scout units from Catholic parishes in every section of this country, have already been received by Mr. Slattery, who believes that, in solving the problem of his organization for taking care of young boys and providing for them wholesome and profitable diversion, the Boy Scouts meet the requirements better than any other organization that could be devised. Upon the initiative and under the auspices of the national Catholic war council, nation-wide efforts are now being made to stimulate the enrollment of Catholic boys under the Scout's banner.
